

EMPOWER YOUR CUSTOMERS WITH THE ABILITY TO SECURELY REVIEW AND APPROVE TICKET DATA THROUGH FIELDFX

LiquidFrameworks provides portal functionality that gives your customers authorized access to certain aspects of FieldFX data for jobs and tickets. Assign your customers a secure account and allow them to review and approve tickets, add comments, monitor job progress, analyze purchase order status, view safety records, and more. You decide what your customers can see using configurable security management provided by FieldFX. Industrial service providers can give different users access based on customer facility, unit, and equipment.

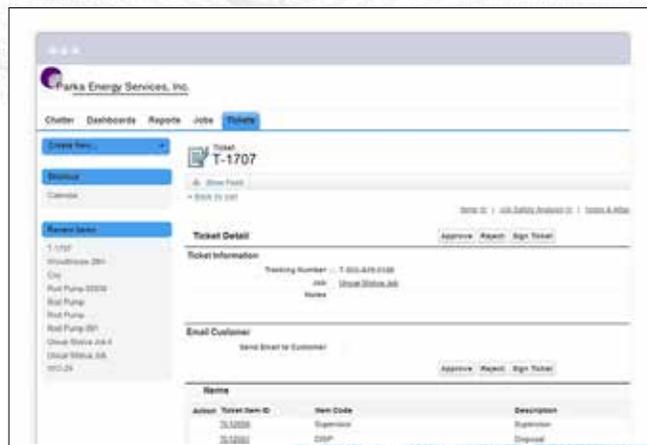

STAY SECURE WHILE IMPROVING CUSTOMER SATISFACTION

The FX Customer Self-Service module keeps your private company information secure, while improving customer satisfaction and strengthening your partnerships. Customers are kept up to date and fewer interruptions mean everyone is more productive. You're sure to become their preferred vendor!

FX CUSTOMER SELF-SERVICE MODULE

- When the customer logs in they immediately see any pending tickets that need approval.
- Having trouble tracking down the customer's representative at well sites? Give them a portal account with access to sign and approve tickets.
- Customize the home page with your customer's logo and configure it to see what you want them to see.
- Customers can view job and ticket information in detail such as items, labor, forms and documents.
- Enter Help text on each page to direct customers and leave reminders.
- Post high-level shared documents, such as contracts, for easy access at all times.
- Create reports and export for further review.
